THE DUNLAPS IN COURT.

Two Sensational Trials Before Recorder Barnes and Juries.

Two sensational trials occupied the attention of Recorder Barnes and two juries this morning and this afternoon.

The defendants were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dunlap, of 154 North street, and the complainant was Oscar Schaunger, who keeps a restaurant down stairs at the same number.

The trouble between the parties occurred July 31, after a trip that Mrs. Dunlap and Mrs. Schaunger made to Midway Park. There was a quarrel, in which Schaunger charges that the Dunlaps used abusive and insulting language.

Mrs. Dunlap was tried this morning, and the jury disagreed. She will be tried again August 15.

Mr. Dunlap was tried this afternoon, John B. Bailey appearing for him and W. J. Barke for the complainant, and Mr. Bailey raised so many points of law that the case was drawn out to great length.

The jury is still out at 3:30.

WEST MAIN STREET PAVING.

Work of Raising the Trolley Tracks Begun—The Condensery Switch.

The work of raising the trolley tracks on West Main street to the new grade was begun, this morning.

Preparations are also being made to lay the condensery's switch on Canal street. The gutters of the vicinity of Main street were torn up Monday. More red lights were displayed in the vicinity of that corner, that night, than are to be found in any yard on the Erie's New York division.

Street Superintendent Reed asks the Argus to say that West Main street, between Franklin Square and James street, will be closed to-night. It will be opened, to-morrow, but only to business men on the street and the city's carts.

First Presbyterian Sunday School Picnic at Glenmere Lake.

The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church is picnicking, to-day, at Glenmere Lake. The start was made from the church at 8:30 and five large wagons took about a hundred happy children and their teachers. Many others drove over during the day in private conveyances. A finer day for a picnic could not possibly have been desired and it goes without saying that all the picnickers are having the best of good times.

FOOT RACE AT MIDWAY PARK.

The Six Days' Contest Started Last Night With Nine Entries—Scores at the Finish.

The walking match at Midway Park, which was started at 9:15 o'clock, Monday night, attracted a very large crowd of interested spectators, many of whom rooted enthusiastically for their favorites among the contestants.

The track is the same as was used in former races, around the band stand, close to the pavilion and up the main path through the park. Fifteen laps are needed to a mile.

C. A. Johnson was starter and Louis Wengenroth scorer, and nine starters came to the scratch and started off at a hot pace when the signal was given. They were: George Mikles, J. Moore, A. Rockafellow, C. Jones, C. Steene, and A. Monarque, of this city; A. Boyst, of Port Jervis, M. Wormwuth, of Stony Ford, and Ed Merritt, of New York.

Boyst, the Port Jervis sprinter, started out to do up all the other contestants in the first few miles. He went round and round the track at the top of his speed and was soon far ahead of all his competitors. He could not, however, keep up the pace at which he started and after a few miles had to drop into a walk and was passed by those who kept down to a dog trot.

Mikles, Moore and Rockafellow seemed to recognize each other as dangerous competitors and kept close together and at the end of the evening were less than a lap apart. It's a question of endurance with them.

Merritt, who is one of the Third Battery men, dropped out after going a few miles.

The score, when time was called at the end of the hour, was:

	Miles	Laps
Mikles	8	2½
J. Moore	8	2½
A. Rockafellow	8	1½
C. Jones	7	11
C. Steene	7	10
A. Monarque	7	8
A. Boyst	5	11
M. Wormwuth	5	6

The race will be started again, to-night, at the conclusion of the vaudeville entertainment and will be continued every night this week.

THE PORT JERVIS RACES.

Good Fields of Entries—"Cute, the Guideless Wonder," secured.

The managers of the Tri-States Driving Park Association, of Port Jervis, are busy making preparations to entertain the largest crowd ever within its gates, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 16th, 17th and 18th.

Besides seven trotting and pacing events, aggregating in premiums over $2,000, the star attraction will be Cute, the handsome, fast and intelligent guideless wonder, that requires no pony beside her, no man on a bicycle behind her, or conchers stationed around the track with beam shooters to keep her moving, as most guideless wonders are helped to do the trick. She is simply led above the wire a reasonable distance to get under headway, and is turned loose, then a buy streak of horse is seen coming at a two minute gait as she passes under the wire. She rates her speed evenly as though guided by hand, always saving a burst of speed to come down the home stretch. Miles are expected close around 2.08 which will be the world's record for a half mile track.

The management having secured this, the greatest equine marvel of the age, at great expense, and this being the only track in Orange, Sullivan or adjoining counties at which she will exhibit this year, trust the public may appreciate their efforts and turn out to see this attraction, which everyone having seen it declares to be the wonder of the nineteenth century.

GLASS WORKS MEETING.

A Tank Furnace to Be Built—Works Will Probably Soon Be Started.

At a meeting of the directors of the Mid Hetown Glass Company at the office of C. R. Fuller, on Centre street, last evening, it was voted to expend a sum sufficient to build a new tank furnace and make other betterments, with a view to the starting up of the works at the commencement of the glass season, Sept. 1st. The company is in negotiation with parties proposing to lease the plant, and this expenditure is to be made to meet their views.

News that there are grounds for expectation that this always popular industry is about to be again put upon its feet will be gladly heard by the entire community.

GOLF CLUB NOTES.

New Members Elected—Many Players—House Committee to Entertain.

—At a meeting of the governing committee of the Orange County Golf Club, Monday afternoon, William Vanamee, of Newburgh, and Mr. Lapsley, of New York, a friend of Percy Wisner, of Goshen, were elected to membership.

—The links were crowded with players, Monday afternoon, the perfect weather bringing out many members for whom golf has not many attractions in very hot weather.

—It is expected that the Golf Club's House Committee will arrange for a series of Saturday afternoon teas at the club house, to which members will be permitted to invite residents of Goshen and Middletown who are not members.

—The Greens Committee will before long arrange a series of tournaments, in which all players will be expected to take part.

Want the Excise Law Enforced in Port Jervis.

ORANGE COUNTY FAIR

Planning to Make It Most Interesting and Attractive.

PLENTY OF AMUSEMENT FOR ALL.

Ball Games, Clay Pigeon Shoots and Field Sports—Unionville, Silk Mill's Exhibit—Horse and Cattle Departments.

There will be sports galore at the Orange county fair, this year, and Superintendent Wells had determined to excel all previous efforts in this respect. Arrangements are now being made for a base ball game each day, a pigeon shoot, with clay pigeons for targets, and a regular field day for sports. The latter events will be in charge of one of the Young Men's Christian Associations and will include sprints of various distances, hammer throwing, putting the shot, broad and high jumping, pole vaulting and other sports of a like nature. The pigeon shooting will be in charge of an expert, who has acquired an enviable local reputation. The base ball games will be arranged by a manager of experience and none but first-class teams will be booked. Should the events be patronized sufficiently to guarantee it they will in all probability be made permanent attractions and county championships be decided in the future at the county fair.

Two expert glass blowers have secured privileges and will have all the paraphernalia of their trade on the grounds. They will blow glass and give away samples to visitors. These gentlemen are experts and will go to the Paris exposition next year. They will have the same material here as there and do the same work. Their process is new and is said to be of the highest degree of perfection yet acquired in this country.

The Unionville silk mills will probably exhibit their process of silk making and will please the ladies by weaving samples of ribbons of various designs and colors, and, what is still more to the point, will present them to the ladies.

There will be no games of chance on the grounds, but there will probably be admitted a few skill, strength or lung testing machines, from which the patrons of the society may extract some information and much amusement.

The horse, cattle and live stock departments will be one of the best features of the show. The superintendents of these departments have managed to get themselves into a very friendly, but no less earnest, state of rivalry regarding their various fields. They are making a personal affair of it and their many friends are watching with acute interest the verdict of the public as to which has the better exhibition, the horse, the cow or the hog department.

GONE TO NEW YORK.

City Editor Bailey, of the "Argus," Accepts a Place on the Evening World.

William F. Bailey, who, for two years, has been city editor of this paper, and who, for several years, held a similar position on the Press, severed his connection with the Argus, Monday night, to accept a place as reporter on the New York Evening World.

The offer of a place on the World's staff was entirely unexpected, and since the matter could not be kept open, Mr. Bailey had to leave on short notice. He went to New York, to-day, to enter on his new duties.

Mr. Bailey had made for himself a place that was all his own in Middletown's newspaper world. He was a tireless worker, a hustler after news, and he knew news when he heard it. He was a ready writer and had a step-d ish style that pleased many readers. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who will learn of his departure from town with regret. He takes with him the best wishes of many friends, and has no more sincere well wishers than his late associates in all departments of the Argus.

MAY RACE FOR $10,000 A SIDE

Patchen and Gentry May Be Matched for Big Money.

There is said to be a fair chance that the rival pacers, John R. Gentry (2:00¾) and Joe Patchen (2:01¼), may be matched for $10,000 a side in a series of races to be decided this season. In the absence of E. H. Harriman in Alaska, the owner of Joe Patchen, offered to bet $10,000 that the black stallion could beat the bay in two races out of three. No one was authorized to accept the wager in the absence of Gentry's owner, but it is intimated from an authorative source that Mr. Harriman is more than willing to match his horse against Patchen, should the offer be renewed. He believes Gentry can beat the old rival, and it is well known that the New York breeder and turfman has never held an opinion relative to his horses that he was not willing to bark with the cash.

WITH THE FISHERMEN.

—The piscatorial editor of this paper has gone out from among us into the World. To keep in line with his metropolitan audience he will take to salt water subjects and discourse about sharks, porpoises and whales.

OBITUARY.

John H. Reeve.

From Our Wawayanda Correspondent.

I received information, a few days ago, from L. A. Tooker that John H. Reeve, a former resident of Wawayanda, died at the city of Springfield, Missouri, on Saturday, July 29, aged about eighty years and was buried in the cemetery at that place.

Before going west Mr. Reeve was one of Wawayanda's most honored citizens. He was supervisor for ten successive terms and for many years held the office of justice of the peace. He represented the Second Orange district in the Assembly with credit and ability for two terms.

Mrs. Sarah Bonnell Chandler.

Mrs. Sarah Bonnell Chandler, widow of Henry Chandler, died at 3 o'clock, this morning, at Sha-Wan-Ga Lodge, aged nearly seventy-three years. She had been in failing health since an attack of the grip in January last and since March her condition has been such as to cause her friends great alarm. She went to Sha-Wan-Ga Lodge when the season opened but the change was of little benefit and she grew steadily worse.

Mrs. Chandler was a daughter of the late Joseph A. Bonnell and was born at Milford, Pa. She came to this city with her parents, when quite young, and all her life was spent here.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church for very many years and the gentleness and sweetness of her nature and the patience and fortitude with which she bore life's varying fortunes and met its trials and vicissitudes won for her the love and admiration of all who knew her.

She had no children and her only immediate relatives are Mrs. Lewis Bonnell, a sister-in-law, and Mrs. L. B. Cornell, a niece, of 16 Linden avenue.

The funeral notice appears elsewhere.

OBITUARY NOTES.

—Charles Hurlick, the well known horseman and bookmaker, of Syracuse, who has sold pools in the Orange county circuit for a number of years, died at his home in Syracuse on Saturday.

—Mrs. Margaret Sigler, widow of Rynear Van Sickle, died, Monday morning, at the home of her son, William, in Port Jervis, in her sixty-sixth year. She was a native of Sandyston, and for many years resided in Huguenville. She is survived by two sons and a daughter.

DOINGS OF THE FIREMEN

Business Transacted at Monday Night's Meetings of the Fire Companies.

The regular monthly meetings of the companies of the Middletown fire department were held, Monday. The big parade was discussed at all the meetings and plans for the entertainment of guests considered. The proposition for each company to appropriate $25 for the entertainment of the "Unpville Fire Brigade," a burlesque and fun making organization from Binghamton, did not find favor in the eyes of the companies, only two, Monhagens and Eagles, voting for the scheme. Therefore the "Unpvilles" will not be seen in the Middletown parade.

Business of public interest transacted by the companies was as follows.

EXCELSIOR.

Resignation of M. Walthall, now a non-resident, accepted. William Fitchie transferred from active to active honorary list. Unpville proposition left to foreman to vote for the company as a majority of the other companies desired.

MONHAGEN.

Henry Bartwistle, C. E. Goldsmith, J. K. Wiggins, I. C. Scudder and Ira Taylor were elected active members.

EAGLE.

Cuno Musbach and Fred J. Drury were elected to active membership.

M'QUOID.

James Barrett was transferred from the active to the active honorary list. President Wm. Pohlman was named as a delegate to the State Firemen's convention at Yonkers. The foreman has issued orders for drills every Thursday evening.

PHŒNIX AND ONTARIO.

Only routine business was transacted by these companies.

WALKILL.

W. J. McCarter and George Beebe were appointed a committee to purchase new uniform caps. A committee was also appointed to secure a new flag pole for the company's house in place of the present one, which is thought to be unsafe.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION

Schools from Ellenville and Vicinity Picnicking at Midway Park.

The Sunday school excursion from Ellenville and places in its vicinity, which came to this city over the O. and W., today, and which was taken from here to Midway Park by electric cars, was a large one, numbering 577 persons.

The Sunday schools represented in the party were the Reformed Lutheran, Methodist and Episcopal, of Ellenville; the Reformed and Methodist, of Napanoch; the Methodist, of Summitville, and the Reformed of Kerhonkson.

The excursion train was made up of nine coaches, and ten trolley cars were in waiting at the Wickham avenue station, on which the merry excursionists were quickly and safely conveyed to Midway Park, where they found so many things to entertain them that time passed all too quickly.

A generous supply of substantials and luxuries was brought along and at noon the tables in the park were loaded with good things to which the hungry children and their equally hungry parents and teachers did ample justice.

The excursionists will return home at 5 o'clock, this afternoon.

Laundry Employe's Hand Burned.

Kate Brown, an employe of George Dorrance's laundry, caught her hand, this morning, between a table cloth and the soft roller of a mangle and her fingers were quite badly burned.

FIRED ON A TOWN.

Paete Shelled by a Gunboat Without Warning.

PEOPLE FLED TO THE HILLS.

One Child Killed—Blunder Seems Inexcusable—Capt. Otis of Washington Regiment Under Arrest—Uncensored News.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

MANILA, August 2, via Hong Kong.—The Gunboat Napidan, last week, shelled Paete on the lake near Santa Cruz. The town was full of people who had been encouraged to return after General Lawton's expedition, having been assured that they would not be molested if they peaceably attended to their business.

Lieut. Copp, who was in command of the Napidan, heard that insurgents had reoccupied the town, and steaming close in, opened fire with his six pounders without warning. People seeing the boat approaching fled to the hills in terror and with barely time to escape. One child was killed and many buildings were damaged.

The authorities express great regret on account of the incident.

After the taking of Calamba by the Americans Gen. Lawton ordered that Capt. Otis, of the Washington regiment, be relieved of his command and placed under arrest on account of the slowness and seeming reluctance of the companies under his command in obeying orders to disembark from the Cascoes and wade through marshes under fire. The men say that a majority of them have been sick and unfit for duty, and were given to understand that they would not be asked to do any more fighting.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BAR HARBOR, Aug. 8.—The coroner's jury which investigated the accident at Mount Desert, Sunday, whereby twenty persons lost their lives, has rendered a verdict that "these people came to their deaths by drowning, caused by the insufficient construction of the slip."

OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

TUESDAY, AUG 8, 1899.

The Republicans of Pike county held their primary election Saturday. There was a sharp contest on Quay and anti-Quay lines and the antis won by a handsome majority, in view of the fact that the vote cast was not large, for Republicans are not plentiful in "little Pike."

Mrs. Von Elm, of Hempstead, L. I., missed her youngest child, Monday, and while searching for it saw a little foot sticking out above the water of a brook. She plunged into the stream and dragged the little one out by the foot, and frantic with fear that her child was dead, ran toward the house, permitting the little body to hang head downward. This thoughtless act was, however, the means of saving the child's life, for it emptied the body of water and made the work of resuscitation easy.

The reforms instituted in the State House of Refuge for Women at Hudson by the new managers, who announced that the inmates would be treated like "Vassar ladies" and that all punishments would be done away with and moral suasion substituted, have resulted in turning the institution topsy-turvy. Moral suasion lasted only a few days but the inmates revolted when punishments were again resorted to and looks now as if it would be months before discipline could be restored.

I. H. Loughran, C. J. Boyd and John I. Bradley, a committee representing Orange county's Board of Supervisors, will appear before the State Tax Commissioners at Albany, to-morrow, and endeavor to convince those officials that justice to Orange county requires a lowering of the county's assessed valuation. Those who are in a position to know are not at all sanguine that the committee will get a slice off the county's assessment, but if, by their demand for a decrease, they prevent the county's valuation being raised a few millions, their journey up the river will not have been in vain.

Many prominent Democrats from different parts of the country are at Saratoga, and they have held several informal conferences in regard to party conditions and prospects. All these conferences have been in the direction of harmony and the keeping of factional differences and personal ambitions in the background. Invitations have been sent to many other Democrats of national reputation, and they are expected at Saratoga next week, when the deliberations will take a more formal turn. Southern Democrats are leading in this movement to unite the Democracy, and the strength of the southern Democratic vote gives the movement character, dignity and importance which it could not have had if any other section had attempted to inaugurate it.

Such a disaster as that which occurred near Bridgeport, Conn., Sunday, when twenty-nine persons were killed by a car plunging over a bridge, would swamp a trolley company in any other State with judgments for damages for loss of life. In Connecticut, however, the legal fiction prevails that human life in itself has no value in dollars and cents, and in cases where death is instantaneous only $100 damages can be awarded. It, however, death results after pain and suffering, damages sufficient to compensate for the suffering may be given, but here the company's luck comes in, for most of those killed in the car's mad plunge were killed outright, and in only a few cases were there any moments for suffering. Heavy damages may have to be paid the injured, but a few thousand dollars will settle the death account.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH DEDICATED

New Roman Catholic Church at Monticello Consecrated to God.

St. Peter's Church, the handsome new house of worship erected by the Roman Catholics in Monticello, was dedicated, Sunday, with imposing ceremonies by Archbishop Corrigan, assisted by many visiting priests.

The church is of Norman Gothic style, and is built of native stone, with Long Meadow brown stone trimmings. It has a seating capacity of 650, but about 1,000 persons were present at the dedicatory services.

One of the treasures of the church is an old painting of the crucifixion by Von Herpe, a pupil of Rubens, which is at least 250 years old. It is valued at $2,500, and was presented to the church by Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, of New York city.

VERY DANGEROUS FUN.

Two Men Badly Hurt by the Discharge of a Cannon Cracker.

From Our Up Midland Correspondent.

Arthur Berringer and Alvin Sheerwood, of Roscoe, while on their way to Jeffersonville, one day last week, were amusing themselves on the way over by discharging cannon firecrackers, after lighting them with a cigar. The fun did not last long, however, when one of them went off, tearing their hands and burning their faces in a fearful manner. They are still at Jeffersonville, undergoing treatment, and are said to be in danger from lockjaw. It is safe to say that should they live they will no longer fool with firecrackers.

AGED WOMAN'S BAD FALL.

Fell Down Cellar Steps and Broke Her Arm in Two Places.

From Our Up Midland Correspondent.

Mrs. Margaret Coulter, of Andes, while visiting her grandchildren at Roscoe, met with a mishap that for one of her age, 70 years, may prove serious. She was standing or walking on the sidewalk in front of Jay Sickle's store when she lost her balance and fell down the stone steps into the cellar, a distance of eight feet, breaking one of her arms in two places. At the time of writing the aged lady is getting along as well as can be expected.

RUSTICUS.

Where Civil Service Examinations Count for but Little.

George Tilford, a Newburgh carpenter, who stood first on the civil service eligible list for appointment on the Newburgh police force, and who didn't get a place, will appeal to the courts to find out if civil service examinations count for anything. He is a fireman, and that is supposed to give him a legal advantage over the man who got the place, who was a recent arrival from Walden.

His Life Was Saved.

My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." Crushed Between Cars.

DANIELSONVILLE, Conn., Aug. 8.—Cecil Brown, the 12-year-old son of William S. Brown, was crushed between the bumpers of two freight cars on the Norwich and Worcester division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad yesterday and died a few minutes later. Young Brown attempted to cross the track as two sections were being run together, but just as he got between the bumpers the cars came together, catching the lad on either side of the hips, killing him almost instantly. Cecil was an only son, and his parents are prostrated because of his death.

DEMANDS FOR DEWEY

The Admiral Declines Appeals From Many Places.

HAD EYE ON MANILA LONG AGO.

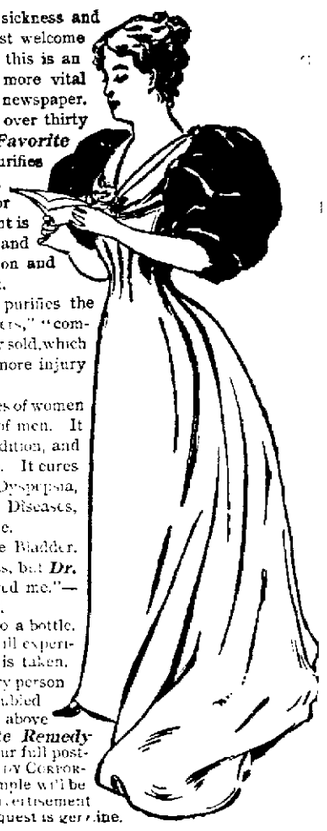
A Date to Be Fixed For Washington, Philadelphia and Chicago Requests Declined—Home Towns Must Wait For a Time.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Chairman Moses of the committee of one hundred having in charge the reception to Admiral Dewey on his arrival in Washington, which includes the presentation of the sword voted him by congress, has received from the admiral the following letter, dated July 25, approving the plans under consideration for the affair:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst. informing me of the arrangements proposed for my reception in Washington; also of a telegram of similar import sent by the secretary of the navy. I am deeply sensible of the high honor your committee proposes to confer upon me and have telegraphed to the secretary that the arrangements approved by the president and by him are entirely agreeable to me. I note with pleasure that it is proposed to make the exercises as simple as possible. It is impossible at this time to fix the date of my arrival in Washington, but I will not fail to give you the information on that point as soon as possible."

An interesting historical fact dating back to 1873 has come to light in which Admiral Dewey was the central figure. Dewey, then a commander, was in command of the United States steamer Narragansett on the

Welcome News



Any information that tells how sickness and disease can be overcome is the most welcome news a paper can print. Although this is an advertisement, it contains facts of more vital importance than anything else in this newspaper.

It tells of a medicine known for over thirty years as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It is a medicine that purifies the Blood, and restores the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs to vigor and strength. Its principal ingredient is not alcohol. It does not ruin men's and women's lives by causing intoxication and fostering the appetite for strong drink.

Favorite Remedy cools and purifies the blood. It is not like the many "bitters," "compounds" and "tonics," now so widely sold, which heat and inflame the blood, doing more injury than good.

Favorite Remedy cures troubles of women just as certainly as it cures troubles of men. It restores the Liver to a healthy condition, and cures the worst cases of Constipation. It cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes and Bright's Disease.

"My complaint was Stone in the Bladder. Physicians said my case was hopeless, but Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me."—D. H. Hoag, Lebanon Springs, N. Y.

Sold in all drug stores for $1 00 a bottle. One teaspoonful is a dose, and you will experience relief long before first bottle is taken.

Sample Bottle Free! Every person troubled with any of the ailments mentioned above is offered a chance to try Favorite Remedy without any cost whatever. Send your full post-office address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout N. Y., and a free sample will be sent you. Please say you saw the advertisement in this paper, so we may know your request is genuine.

AS SEEN FROM A WAGON.

Through the Country, for Many Miles Roundabout Middletown, by an "Argus" Man.

That there are several pieces of fodder corn growing on the State Hospital farm that are phenomenal,—for all that this is a great corn season; and that no farmer but can get from them a profitable lesson in how to make fodder.

That the Texas Fly is making life miserable for all horned stock, and that it is apparent that cattle will have to be protected from them by coverlets, or their bodies annointed with something so obnoxious to these pests as will keep them off them.

That it is high time that a law be made regulating the riding of the "silent steed" over country roads. Cyclers have their road rights, but decent regard for the road rights of others should not be lost sight of by them. They are not privileged to affright horses by stealing upon them, phantom-like, from either direction, which is their custom. The horse has become familiarized to the tinkling of the "bike" bell, and when it is sounded he knows what is coming, and is prepared. So tap the bell, gentlemen, and all will be pleasant.

That the practice of spreading manure, so much and so long in vogue in this county on mowing lands immediately after haying was through with, has almost altogether gone out. There were many seasons in which the manure so applied was largely wasted. The practice of top-dressing is all right when seasonably done, but farmers were taught by experience that unless rain followed upon the heels of the work, done as it was in the midst of the summer solstice, that the essential properties of the manure went into the air, leaving the residuum baked into a dust that which was as valueless as so much punk.

That the incoming of the city summer boarder is a decided acquisition, hereabouts, for more than mere financial reasons. He, or rather she, and the "kids," are in gladdening evidence in and about many a farm house, where all was silent as the grave before their coming. The women are visible on stoops and piazzas and in dooryards, while the children are seen merry-making, the air musical with the notes of their youthful voices. Altogether, the presence of the city summer boarder lends new attractions, new charms to the landscape. May each recurring season add to his numbers, to our good, to his good and to the good of his wife and the "kids."

DREYFUS COURT OPEN

Second Trial of the Famous French Prisoner.

TERRIBLE ORDEAL FOR THE ACCUSED

Calm and Quiet Mark the Opening Day, and the Expected Clash Between the Two Factions Did Not Materialize.

RENNES, France, Aug. 8.—The ancient capital of Brittany was never less moved, never more sluggish, than on this memorable day. It seemed 100,000 miles away from Dreyfus and his exciting case. Dreyfus was known to be a good deal excited, but he had been keeping a stiff upper lip, and Sunday he refused to see the last set of photographs of his children brought from Paris by his brother-in-law.

It was expected that the Dreyfusites and anti-Dreyfusites would shun each other and put up at different hotels, but they have tacitly agreed to sink their differences in each other's company. They not only lodge at the same hotels, but they take their meals at the same tables and amicably pass to each other the dishes.

Precisely at the time named the door of the military prison opened, and Dreyfus, guarded by a captain of gendarmery, appeared. He wore a brand new uniform. The stiff linings not having yet formed into the shape of the figure, the whole suit seemed an awkward fit. The three rows of gold braid that were torn from his cuff on the day of his degradation were glinting in the sun. The man was as stiff as his uniform. He held his head high, as if on purpose, but his shoulders stooped. The step was that of a man not used to freedom and extremely measured and mechanical. One might think he marked time as he walked.

His hair is of reddish gray. His neat mustache is frankly red. The face had a drawn and worn expression, the eyes furtively inquiring, as if looking out for traps and pitfalls. His complexion is fresh—the kind of freshness that accompanies auburn hair. The lips are rather thin, and the chin is that of a strong man; indeed, the chin contracted the impression given by the timidity of the eyes.

Captain Dreyfus crossed the hall close to me and entered a room, the door of which closed behind him. The arrival of the witnesses took place a little later, and they were taken to the rector's room. Generals Billot, Mercier, Chanoine, Gouse, Zurlinden and de Boisdeffre were in uniform, as were many of the field and subaltern officers. The widow of Colonel Henry leaned upon the arm of an army captain. She was most amiably saluted by Generals de Boisdeffre and Mercier. She looks stagy and not ladylike. General de Pellieux kept aloof. M. Cavaignac's cheerfulness seemed forced, but former President Casimir Perier was blithe as a boy. He wore a summer suit of shepherd's plaid, a white [illegible] and a straw hat. Lieutenant Colonel Picquart was in plain clothes and was cold shouldered by the army people, but apparently he did not mind. He had played the winning card and could afford to be indifferent.

No members of the Dreyfus family were anywhere visible, but most of the leading partisans of Dreyfus had come.

At 7 o'clock the coming of the court was announced in military fashion, the soldiers presenting arms. They proceeded in Indian file to their places behind a long table on a slightly raised platform. Colonel Jouaust, the presiding officer, is a man of dignified appearance, not unintellectual, and has an upright, martial air. The counsel for the defense have seats and desks on the stage, or platform to the left of the judges' table. The seat of the accused is in front and also on the stage. Facing it, on the right side, are desks for the registrar and prosecuting officer. All are well in view.

Colonel Jouaust, in a stentorian voice, declared the trial begun and ordered the accused to be brought in. All eyes were turned upon Dreyfus. His fresh complexion astonished all. The figure remains clean built.

He entered with measured step. His mode of saluting the court was jerky and very composed, but his fingers betrayed febrile nervousness. His voice is not good, but it was out of practice for five years.

The first incident was the declaration of the president colonel that he had unlimited power to call witnesses. He then ordered those of M. Quesnay de Beaurepaire to be cited. The indictment is that of 1894.

Dreyfus answered cautiously all questions. The judge was fair, but evidently not friendly. He showed himself, however, sensible and sober minded and impressed every one favorably.

Mme. Dreyfus visited her husband in the afternoon and found him hopeful, although much unnerved, as the rigorous examination and especially the unfeeling demeanor displayed toward him by Colonel Jouaust proved a tremendous strain upon him. There are many persons who were present at the trial now under the impression that the harshness of the presiding judge was assumed and was intended to disarm the enemies of Dreyfus, who are only anxious to interpret ordinary courtesy into the grossest partiality toward the prisoner.

Ex-Convict Seeks to Recover $25,000.

ALBANY, Aug. 8.—Among the claims filed yesterday against the state was that of John Culeton of New York city, an ex-convict, who seeks to recover $25,000. He was sentenced from New York city in April, 1895, and during his confinement in Sing Sing prison contracted blood poisoning from hair of horses which he was compelled to clean and tease. He claims damages on the ground that the state authorities by compelling him to perform that work have ruined his health for life. The claim is filed by virtue of a statute passed by the last legislature.

ANGEL CHILDREN.

Is there any happier woman in this world than that mother whose each successive little one seems to her but one more darling angel to continually lift her thoughts toward the sunshine of perfect happiness? But sorry is the lot of that poor mother to whom motherhood has ceased to be a cause of rejoicing, but has become instead a burden to be dreaded and looked forward to with melancholy and apprehension.

"About three months before our last baby was born (which is our fourth), writes Mrs. Nellie Carl, of Myrtlepoint, Coos Co., Oregon, "my health was very poor. I had been troubled for about eight years with female disease. I doctored with good physicians but obtained no relief, so I wrote to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, and was advised to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so, and am happy to say my health began to improve and I did my work up to the last, and felt splendid.

"I got along finely during confinement, and have the healthiest baby I ever saw. When he was three months old he weighed eighteen pounds; he is now seven months old and weighs twenty-four pounds. I can say I have had no return of my old troubles. I thank you very much for the good you have done me."

Any woman may write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., a statement of her case, which will be considered in absolute confidence by this physician who stands among the foremost specialists of the century in the treatment of women's diseases. He will send her (in a plain, sealed envelope) sound, sensible, valuable advice free of all charge.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page, illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.

—Billy Allison Davis means that his picnic at Maennerchor Park, to-night, shall be the picnic event of the season.

—If you want to enjoy a good hearty laugh go and see "The Real Widow Brown" when she comes to the Casino, Thursday night.

—Golfers have been interested in the hand-carved Mexican leather caddy bag, which E. M. Bonnell, a guest of C. B. Bradnack, is exhibiting.

—Billy Allison Davis will do his level best to make things pleasant for all who attend his picnic at Maennerchor Park, and as every one knows, Billy's level best is a pretty good sort of best.

—If you intend to be a business man, get a business education at the Ramsdell School of Business and Shorthand, 25 North street, Middletown.

—The temperature was unseasonable enough, last night, to call for extra bed clothing, but even then many people, the "probabilities" are that blankets will be called into play to-night.

—Thirty-nine counties in the State have fixed the price of sidepath licenses at a dollar each. Five counties think fifty or twenty-five cents enough, and they are not building many miles of paths.

—Have you tried the muskmelon scalled "Little Gems?" They are as shabby looking as an aged and discarded coat, but if you cut into one you will find there is much in the saying "beauty is but skin deep."

—Poughkeepsie's wheelmen don't care for sidepaths, for only seventy tags have been sold there and the price is only fifty cents. The reason undoubtedly is that the fine roads up and down the river do away with all necessity for paths.

—Don't forget that our youths' Honesdale shoes, at $1.25 per pair, are the best shoes in town at the price. Try them. We guarantee them to give satisfaction.

TURF AND HORSE NOTES.

—Geo. A. Waldorf, to-day, sold his pacing horse, Sentinel to George McKney, of Bullville.

—Temper is the fastest trotter of her size in the world, according to a Western writer. She is barely 14 hands, and weighs only a little over 700 pounds. At Cleveland she won the second heat of the 2.10 trot in 2.12¾, and was timed in the same notch the third heat. On the half mile track at Elyria she won in 2.16¾, 2.15¾ and 2.15¼, but was separately timed the first heat in 2.13.

—Judge Martin, of Newton, N. J., is looked upon as one of the most honorable men that ever occupied the bench. The only recreation he enjoys is with the trotter. He has a very fast mare in Sacha, by Simmons, that he has stabled with James Platt in Goshen. She starts in the 2.20 class at Goshen and Port Jervis.

—Driven by John Dickerson, Fred Kohl, the first son of Guy Wilkes, owned by Senator McCarthy, of Goshen, N. Y., captured the $2,000 stake of $2,000, yesterday, at Buffalo, in three straight heats, beating a field of seven, and starting third choice in the pools. Charley Herr and Tudor Chimes being first and second favorites. Kohl won in such fine style that he was awarded credit as the star performer of the day's meeting. Time, 2:10¾, 2:11¼, 2:11¼.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,
